

Ms. Kaitlin Breen

Ms. Kaitlin Breen brings dedicated service to the fields of higher education and student advocacy. She is currently pursuing her Master of Arts in History and has a certificate in Women's and Gender Studies from Claremont Graduate University. Ms. Breen earned her Bachelor of Arts in Liberal Studies with Distinction and a minor in Sociology from Sonoma State University, where she graduated Magna Cum Laude. Her academic background in sociology and cultural studies provides a strong foundation for her commitment to equitable education.

Currently serving as the Assistant Director of Admission at Pitzer College, Ms. Breen recruits students nationally and manages complex evaluation and selection processes. Her professional experience also includes roles as a teacher at Brentwood Sunshine Preschool and an instructional assistant at REACH Charter School, where she focused on curriculum development and middle school instruction. As an alumna of the Options for Youth-Acton Inland Empire Class of 2017 and a recipient of the Pathways in Education Scholarship, she brings a vital, firsthand perspective to the mission of alternative education.

Since 2023, Ms. Breen has contributed her expertise as a member of the Board of Directors for Opportunities For Learning - Baldwin Park ("OFL-BP"). In addition to her professional leadership, she serves as a Chapter Advisor for Phi Sigma Sigma at the University of La Verne. Her combination of administrative insight, instructional experience, and academic rigor makes her a vital asset in guiding the mission of OFL-BP.
